Report on Workshop on "Start-up and Entrepreneurship" which was organized on 23/02/2023 at 09.00 am for First Year BBA and BBA IB students.

Date: Thursday, 23rd February 2023

Time: 09.30 am to 11.00 am.

Class: First Year BBA and BBA IB students

Venue: Class room 005

Guest Invited: Mr. Roshan Dhariwala

Guest Profile:

Roshan is a senior international study consultant who had helped students secure admission to Ivy League colleges like Cornell and Duke. Roshan is a graduate from Pune's own Wadia college, after which he pursued his diploma from the prestigious Sophia's college in Mumbai. He has worked with Sony TV and Radio Mirchi and was an entrepreneur before he joined EduPeer.

Objectives of the Seminar:

- To help participants cultivate an entrepreneurial mentality and skill set.
- To enrich participants' knowledge of market trends, customer requirements and preferences, and competitive environment.

The VCACS hosted a webinar titled "How to Create Your Own Business" in which the guest speaker, Roshan dhariwala, provided an interactive discussion on the various aspects of entrepreneurship. Topics discussed during the webinar included the definition of a Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSME), preparation of a business plan, launching a Self-Employed Initiative (SSI), obtaining financial support from the government, assessing potential risks and overcoming them, and the various schemes offered by the government, such as Skill India and Digital India. The webinar concluded with a Q & A session to answer questions posed by students.
